

Storms Bring Some Damage Across State

TIMBER! — Two large maple trees spread their broken, twisted trunks and branches over two smashed vehicles in the front yard of the Lowell Varney residence, Route 4. A third car, a station wagon, buried in leaves at the right is completely obscured from this view.

Heavy rains and high winds played havoc in Pickaway County Sunday night as 1.74 inches of rain fell during a severe thunderstorm that struck the Circleville vicinity about 9 p.m.

Unconfirmed reports of a tornado behind the RCA plant were received from passing motorists.

The winds caused much damage in the southeastern and eastern parts of the county, where electrical service was cut off for a while.

Two towering red maple trees, measuring approximately 27 inches in diameters, were knocked over in front of the Lowell Varney residence, 28206 Pickaway-Saltcreek Road.

According to Varney's wife Estella, the two trees, one which blew over at its base, fell about 10:45, smashing in the tops of a car and a van and burying a third in more branches. In addition some damage was done to the roof of the home.

Mrs. Varney said, "All at once I heard this crashing noise that scared me half to death. Our collie was trapped under the van and it took us 45 minutes to loosen its paw and free him.

Telephone lines were blown down in the area but were still operating. An empty 15 foot grain bin was upended on a lot on Heffner Road, a line was reported down on the Winchester-Southern Road, south of the Stoutsville Road, and a pole was bent by high winds on the Ett-Noecker Road, south of the Madison-Walnut Road.

The Kingston Fire Department and Pickaway County Sheriff's Deputy Bill Huffman cut "as much as possible" of a large tree which blocked Route 159, 1 1/2 miles north of Kingston.

Elsewhere in the county, heavy rain stopped traffic in a section of Route 762 and flooded the railroad underpass on Route 752 causing a car to stall.

Circleville Township trustees ordered high water signs be placed at the intersection of Shawnee Trail and Dunkle Road.

Deputy Sheriff Jim Deal pushed tree limbs off Route 188 about 10:30 a.m. and helped Glenn McCoy clear Warner-Huffer Road of tree limbs.

Rain and electrical storms rolled across northern Ohio over the weekend knocking out electricity for thousands of residents, flooding streets and highways and raising rivers to nearly flood stage at several points.

One man was reported drowned off Port Clinton when 4-to-6 foot waves damaged his outboard motorboat.

Many funnel clouds were spotted aloft across northeastern Ohio, and one twister was reported to have come low enough to damage some trees near Mantua in Portage County.

Flood warnings were out for the Chagrin and Cuyahoga rivers, with heaviest flooding reported along the Cuyahoga in Portage County and on the Chagrin east of Cleveland.

Painesville firemen made a dramatic, four-hour rescue of five canoeists whose boats capsized, leaving them stranded on a concrete bridge support in the middle of Grand River.

In the Cleveland area, 25,000 residents were reported without electricity, and several streets and highways were closed because of flooding.

Portage County deputies said a county road bridge over the Cuyahoga River was washed out, and Ohio 44 was closed south of Mantua because a bridge over the Cuyahoga was under water.

Ohio 303 was closed at Streetsboro when flooding caused a cave in.

The Cleveland Electric Illuminating Co. said thousands of wires were down and more than 25,000 customers lost power during afternoon and evening storms Sunday.

At Willoughby, the rainfall totaled nearly three inches over a two-hour period, and four inches was reported unofficially at Kent.

Heavy flooding was reported in the Chagrin River Valley, where the river rose to 10.5 feet and was moving toward its 13-foot flood level in the STEPPED-UP police patrols and the promise of full prosecution are expected to cut down nagging vandalism problems at Circleville schools . . .

The increased police action, announced by Capt. Jerry Smallwood and Ptl. Ron Smith, comes on the heels of $110 damage to windows at the Nicholas Drive School, the second destruction of windows at the school in three weeks . . .

This time, vandals hurled two large pieces of concrete into windows on the north side . . .

The Police Department plans to work closely with the Circleville Board of Education in the prosecution of vandals and trespassers . . . They are also asking for the help of residents in reporting suspicious persons near the schools.

Carter Still Ponders Veep Choice

Demo Convention Opens

NEW YORK (AP) — Jimmy Carter, his hand freed by political strength that an incumbent president might envy, is wrapping up his vice presidential interviews as he waits triumphantly in the wings for tonight's opening of the Democratic National Convention.

The 37th Democratic National Convention, staged at Madison Square Garden, is expected to nominate Carter for the presidency Wednesday night by an overwhelming vote amid a harmony that contrasts to divisive party fights in 1968 over the Vietnam war and 1972 over party reform.

Sens. Frank Church of Idaho and Adlai Stevenson III of Illinois, meeting Carter today, are the last of seven finalists for the vice presidential nomination, all from Capitol Hill, to be interviewed.

Carter said Sunday he has three names at the top of his list but said he is keeping an open mind until the interviews are over.

The peanut farmer and former Georgia governor who dazzled the political establishment with his long-shot run to the nomination said he would wait until after his own nomination before revealing his choice of a running mate.

With 19 primary victories to his credit and The Associated Press delegate poll showing him with 1,653 votes, well over the 1,505 needed for nomination, Carter is wrapping up a campaign that is a sharp contrast to the close and bitter Republican nomination battle. A month ahead of the GOP convention, President Ford leads conservative challenger Ronald Reagan by only a handful of votes.

The vice presidential selection has emerged as the major unresolved issue at the convention in the absence of a race for the top of the ticket and the calm of a party platform so secure that it's already printed and bound and in the hands of each delegate.

Carter's personal public opinion pollster, Patrick Caddell, has concluded that no particular vice presidential prospect would appreciably help or hurt Carter's own chances of winning the fall election, campaign aides said.

The Carter staff said Caddell's polls show that the strength and diversity of Carter's own appeal make the No. 2 spot virtually irrelevant. The only possible trouble spot, they say, is that he not make an especially bad choice which might develop into a major scandal or embarrassment.

Sen. George McGovern of South Dakota, the party's 1972 nominee, suffered a setback when it was discovered that his running mate, Sen. Thomas A. Eagleton of Missouri, had undergone electric shock treatment for depression. Eagleton was dropped from the ticket after that disclosure.

Carter revealed Sunday that he is taking unprecedented steps to keep that sort of thing from happening to him. He said he has requested financial and medical information from everyone on his list of possible running mates.

The accounting firm of Arthur Andersen & Co. was engaged to go over the financial data, including tax returns, Carter said, and "they have found nothing to cause me concern."

Carter said Sen. Walter F. Mondale of Minnesota, one of the finalists, reported he suffers from a mild case of high blood pressure and takes medication for it.

Carter said this "is a factor but not an over-riding factor" in his decision. Later, after meeting with Rep. Peter Rodino of New Jersey, Carter said Rodino's age, 67, also would be a factor but not an over-riding one.

Carter also has interviewed Sen. Henry M. Jackson of Washington, Sen. Edmund Muskie of Maine and Sen. John Glenn of Ohio in his search for a ticket-mate. Church and Stevenson round out the seven finalists.

"So far as I know, the vice president will come from one of those seven people," Carter said.

Only two or three other names are expected to be placed in nomination for the presidency, Rep. Morris K. Udall of Arizona and Gov. Edmund G. Brown Jr., of California, and possibly Ellen McCormack of New York, the antiabortion candidate.

Tonight's opening session of the convention was to be largely ceremonial, with keynote speeches by Glenn and Rep. Barbara Jordan of Texas. Tuesday night, the platform will be presented by a procession of Democratic political stars including Muskie, Chicago Mayor Richard Daley and Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace.

Barring some unexpected development, Carter will be nominated on Wednesday and his running mate on Thursday, followed by Carter's acceptance speech.

Reynolds Sets Open House

REYNOLDS METALS ASHVILLE PLANT

W. F. Kazelskis, Plant Manager of Reynolds Metals Company's Ashville plant, has announced that there will be an open house for the public at the Ashville facility on Wednesday, July 14, from 1:30 p.m. until 7 p.m.

Kazelskis indicated that the plant will be in operation, thus giving employees the opportunity to bring their families through the facility.

Gary Gephart, Personnel Manager, has also announced that in conjunction with Reynolds Metals Company's participation with this year's Muscular Dystrophy drive, the Ashville plant will be accepting donations of scrap aluminum on behalf of MDA on July 14.

The Ashville Plant is not part of the Reynolds Recycling Company and can not pay cash for donations. All donations for MDA are tax deductible and individuals will be issued receipts. All clean aluminum scrap and aluminum cans will be accepted.

Gephart indicated that the only sure way of determining whether cans are aluminum is to use a magnet. A magnet will not attach to an aluminum can. Make sure to test the sides of cans because most can tops are made out of aluminum.

Reynolds' Ashville plant is five years old and currently employs approximately 500 workers. Production employees at the Ashville Plant are represented by the United Steelworkers of America, Local 7993.

Major products of the Plant are aluminum siding and accessories, aluminum windows and doors, and aluminum extrusions. The Ashville Plant covers approximately 266,000 square feet and in addition the plant occupies 240,000 square feet at its warehousing facility in Columbus.

The plant was originally located in Pickaway County because of a good labor market in this area, 90 per cent of all aluminum siding produced in the United States is manufactured in Ohio, placing Reynolds in the heart of the aluminum siding industry, and the Ashville location puts the plant within 600 miles of two-thirds of the population of the United States.

This point is exemplified by the fact that the Ashville Plant operates its own fleet of 13 tractors and 39 trailers.

Each truck trip averages 940 miles round-trip.

Report Mrs. Nixon Making Progress

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — The Nixon family's optimism is rising with reports that Pat Nixon is out of the critical stage in her recovery from a stroke that could leave her partially paralyzed.

Former President Richard M. Nixon said late Sunday as he left Long Beach Memorial Hospital that he was encouraged by his wife's progress.

Nixon and daughters Tricia Cox and Julie Eisenhower spent more than four hours with Mrs. Nixon. It was the longest visit since she was hospitalized Thursday, the day after she was stricken.

Earlier Sunday, doctors said Mrs. Nixon was responding to treatment and remains within normal limits.

Dr. Jack M. Mosier, a neurologist treating the 64-year-old former first lady, said Sunday it would be two to three months before doctors know if she has suffered any permanent damage.

Mrs. Nixon was moved Sunday from her windowless hospital room to one with a distant ocean view. The room was the same one in which her husband was treated for phlebitis in 1974.

Nixon said, "I think she is passing through the crisis...maybe has passed through it — time will tell — but most important now comes the long haul and that is a difficult time."

Nixon said his wife may require therapy for several months.

To cheer his wife, Nixon brought a special gift Sunday which he displayed for reporters. It was a waxy and fragrant gardenia — one plucked from the bush at his wife's bedroom window at their San Clemente estate.

Mrs. Nixon has been listed in serious but stable condition since her arrival at the hospital Thursday. Doctors say they are still uncertain about the cause of the stroke, but a hemorrhage is mostly likely.

A flood of letters and flowers continues to keep hospital workers busy. Operators say the switchboards are buzzing with calls from well-wishers.

And so many bouquets have arrived at the hospital that Mrs. Nixon has requested that the flowers be sent to other wards to cheer patients there.

Regulatory Agencies Seek Consumer Input

By LOUISE COOK
Associated Press Writer

What's the best way to make cars safe?

Should airlines have to explain their fare schedules?

How big a refund are you entitled to on a defective product?

These are some of the questions the government is trying to answer, and it wants help from consumers. Here are some proposed changes in government regulations and information on making your views known:

AIR BAGS

The Transportation Department has proposed extending until Aug. 31, 1977, requirements concerning air bags and seat belts. As of now, auto makers have three options. They can install a complete, passive protection system — such as an air bag — which automatically inflates to provide protection in all types of crashes. They can install a combination system with an air bag to protect the occupant in head-on crashes and lap seat belts for safety in other accidents. Or, they can simply provide lap seat belts.

Most manufacturers have chosen the third option. General Motors offered a passive restraint system as an option on some luxury cars in 1974, 1975 and 1976, but does not intend to offer it in the future.

Transportation Secretary William T. Coleman Jr. has scheduled an Aug. 3 public hearing in Washington and also wants written comments. He has said he will issue a written decision by next Jan. 1.

Among the questions Coleman is asking:

—Should the current standards be extended?

—Should air bags be required on all vehicles after a given date?

—Do you favor more federally-sponsored research on the costs and effectiveness of devices such as air bags?

—Would you support state laws requiring the use of safety belts?

The Aug. 3 hearing will be held at the Transportation Department auditorium, Constitution Avenue between 12th and 14th Sts., N.W., in Washington.

Written comments, due by Sept. 17, should be sent to the Secretary of Transportation, Washington, D.C., 20590. Mark the envelope FMVSS 208, indicating that your comments apply to Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standard 208.

WARRANTIES

The Federal Trade Commission has proposed letting companies offering a full warranty make a deduction if a defective product is used before it is returned.

Under the formula suggested, the amount of the refund would depend on how much use the customer got out of the product. To figure out the size of a refund, you would take the amount of use you got, divide it by the total useful life of the product and multiply it by the purchase price. The company issuing the warranty would have to explain, in the warranty itself, how the formula worked.

Aug. 3 is the deadline for comment. Write: Special Assistant Director for Rulemaking, Bureau of Consumer Protection, Federal Trade Commission, Washington, D.C. 20580.

AIR FARES

The Civil Aeronautics Board has proposed requiring air carriers to publish and distribute easy-to-understand summaries of available fares, including any restrictions on use. The proposal is the result of a petition by the Aviation Consumer Action Project, which claimed that the public now "has no practicable way to determine all the options available to it for discretionary travel, since the official fare tariffs are unintelligible to the average layman."

The deadline for comments is Aug. 6. Write: Docket Section, Civil Aeronautics Board, Washington, D.C. 20428.

USED CARS

The Federal Trade Commission has extended the deadline for comment on a plan requiring used-car dealers to provide more information, including known defects, about the vehicles they sell.

The commission has prepared a questionnaire for the use of consumers who have bought used cars and want to relate their experiences. To get a copy of the questionnaire, write to Used Cars, Room 288, Federal Trade Commission, Washington, D.C. 20580.

The deadline for comments on the proposals is July 31. Write: Special Assistant Director for Rulemaking, Federal Trade Commission, Washington, D.C. 20580.

American Executed In Angola

WASHINGTON (AP) — Daniel Gearhart signed up to fight as a mercenary in Africa because his family was deeply in debt. Now, says his widow, the Angolan government that executed him wants her to pay $5,000 to get his body back.

Angry and close to tears Sunday, Sheila Gearhart said her husband died on their 11th wedding anniversary. "I'm beginning to wonder if they didn't even know that," she said. "I wouldn't be surprised."

The 34-year-old Vietnam veteran was executed Saturday by an Angolan firing squad, although he claimed he never had a chance to fight in the African country before his capture by Cuban troops. He had advertised his services as a mercenary in Soldier of Fortune magazine.

Mrs. Gearhart said her husband fought for pay because of $30,000 in debts plaguing the family. Now, facing life as a widow on welfare with four children, she said the Angolan government has told her it will cost her $5,000 to get her husband's body back. "I can't pay it," she said from her home in suburban Kensington, Md. "There's no way I can pay it. I have four children to support."

Australians On Strike

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — At least half of Australia's six million workers joined in a 24-hour strike today that halted all public transport and airline flights and affected major industries. The protest is against changes in a national health plan.

However, retail shops did a reasonably brisk business with about 80 per cent of sales personnel reporting for work.

The first national strike in Australia's history was called by the Australian Council of Trade Unions (ACTU) to protest government changes in a national health scheme known as Medibank. Prime Minister Malcolm Fraser has announced plans to impose a 2.5 per cent levy on taxable income to pay for the plan, with an option for people to rejoin private health insurance funds.

Small demonstrations against the government were held in Sydney, Melbourne and Canberra.

Economists estimate the strike could cost Australian industry $620 million in lost production and wages, although the actual cost will not be known for some time. Big steel works and mining operations were particularly affected by the walkout.

Markets

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market swept ahead again today amid continuing optimism over the outlook for Federal Reserve credit policy.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks picked up more than 2 points in the early going to around the 1,005 level.

Gainers opened up a 5-2 lead over losers among New York Stock Exchange-listed issues.

Trading was active, with the consolidated ticker tape reporting trades in NYSE stocks running four minutes late shortly after the opening.

Brokers noted encouragement over the Fed's move last week to relax its monetary policy a bit. And there was talk that the central bank might ease up a little more before long.

Today's early prices included NLT, up 1/4 at 21; Eastman Kodak, ahead 1 at 101 1/2; Chrysler, up 1/4 at 19 1/4, and MGIC Investment, 1/2 higher at 14.

On Friday the Dow Jones industrial average climbed 11.13 points to 1,003.11.

Gainers outnumbered losers by better than a 2-1 margin among NYSE-listed issues, and the exchange's composite index rose .49 to a new recovery high of 56.06.

Big Board volume came to 23.50 million shares.

At the American Stock Exchange, the market value index was up .68 at 106.57.

Motorcyclist Hurt In Crash

James L. Myers, 27, Bourneville, suffered minor injuries when he lost control of his motorcycle 7:30 p.m. Sunday at the intersection of Route 104 and Route 316.

Deputy Sheriff Jim Deal said Myers was treated at Berger Hospital's emergency room for abrasions and contusions to both arms and hands and his chest and later released.

Deputy Deal said Myers was driving south on Route 104 when he lost control of his motorcycle while trying to avoid a car which was in the process of making a left turn.

Myers was thrown to the pavement.

Firemen Make Two Calls

The Circleville fire department made two calls Sunday, one of them to the RCA plant. At 10:45 a.m., firemen dispatched to the plant to find the roof beams at the rear of the building on fire.

Apparently the fire resulted from sparks caused by a workman welding. Minor damages were reported.

At 11:55 a.m. Sunday, firemen dispatched to the home of William Cupp, 305 E. Franklin St., where they found fumes emitting from a bad vent in a water heater.

Cher Gives Birth To Baby Boy

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Singer Cher Allman is "feeling well and doing fine" after giving birth to a healthy seven-pound, six-ounce boy, a spokesman says.

The baby was born Saturday about five hours after Cher entered Cedars-Sinai Hospital. The spokesman said the baby was named Elijah Blue Allman.

Carter's Staffers Ready For Battle

NEW YORK (AP) — Jimmy Carter is equipped for a small political war on the floor of the Democratic National Convention even though no one else has the votes to mount more than a skirmish.

The Carter campaign has spent a total of $350,000 on its convention operations, including those at Madison Square Garden where the votes are taken and at the Americana Hotel where Carter is staying, spokesman Peter Emerson said Sunday.

At the convention hall, Carter's forces have four trailers manned by 25 persons, 50 telephones and 44 floor workers, including 30 VIP floor leaders. These VIPs, empowered to speak for the Carter campaign and spotted around the convention floor, include Sen. Birch Bayh of Indiana, whom Carter bested in the presidential primaries, and Frank Mankiewicz, who was Sen. George McGovern's press secretary during the 1972 presidential campaign.

But the big artillery in the Carter arsenal is a private telephone system at the Garden. There are 20 green telephones in a network throughout the hall. Each is connected directly to a telephone in one of the Carter trailers a dozen yards off the convention floor.

At each state delegation there are red telephones to link the delegation chairman with the podium, and a white telephone which is part of a system set up by the Democratic National Committee to link all parts of the floor, key party officials, and candidate and ex-candidate headquarters inside Madison Square Garden.

The Carter people also have their own internal telephone system between their rooms at the Americana and their trailers at the Garden. And they have the ability to join their system to others for conference calls.

No other candidate has his own telephone system on the floor.

Ohio Delegates Like Glenn Or Church

By STEVEN R. HURST and HENRY HEILBRUNN

Ohio's delegates to the Democratic nominating convention favor Sen. John Glenn or Sen. Frank Church of Idaho as the vice presidential nominee, a survey by The Associated Press shows.

Church is chosen by 27 of the 152 delegates at the New York convention that begins today. Glenn was named by 25 delegates as their choice for vice president if their presidential favorite receives the convention endorsement.

The rest were scattered, with Sen. Walter Mondale named often, or were uncommitted in the poll conducted in June by The AP.

The survey also determined that the typical delegate going to the convention from Ohio is white, an educator, worked toward a postgraduate college degree, is not a union member, will vote for Jimmy Carter on the first ballot and is nearly 39. The income of his household is between $10,000 and $25,000.

The Associated Press surveyed all but three of the 126 delegates pledged to former Georgia Gov. Jimmy Carter, 20 favoring Rep. Morris K. Udall of Arizona and six supporting favorite son candidate, Rep. Louis Stokes of Cleveland.

The entire delegation of 152 members contains 99 men, 53 women. Eighty per cent of the delegation is white with one person who says he is Indian and the rest black. That's near the same proportion as 1972.

The delegates range in age from 17 to 67.

The youngest is Clare Smith of University Heights outside Cleveland who will be 18 in October while she studies political science in her first year at the University of Chicago.

She became a delegate because of a high school class project. She asked her teacher how to become a convention representative and was told to write a report for the class.

"I went out to find out and in the process we got ourselves elected," she said.

Forty per cent of the delegation have done postgraduate work or received a degree, 44 per cent have a college degree or some higher education experience, and 16 per cent completed high school.

Work experience is varied. Twenty persons are in education, 19 deal in legal services, 18 are elected public officials, 16 are students, 15 are union officials, including the three regional directors in Ohio of the United Auto Workers. More than 70 per cent of the delegation is without union membership.

The household income of 89 per cent is above $10,000 and 37 per cent gross more than $25,000. Eleven per cent earn less than $10,000 when the entire household is counted. The rest declined to comment.

Slaying Suspect Nabbed In Kentucky

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Lee Edward Seiber, 28, has been arrested on a charge of unlawful flight to avoid prosecution on a murder warrant in Columbus, Ohio, the Federal Bureau of Investigation said Sunday.

Staley Czarnecki, special agent in charge of the FBI in Kentucky, said Seiber had been a fugitive for almost two years. He identified Seiber as a former member of the Louisville Outlaws Motorcycle Club.

The FBI said it arrested Seiber here Sunday.

Ohio officials said Seiber is wanted in connection with the April 19, 1974, gang slaying of probationer William Irskens, 21.

Irskens was beaten by three men in a bar, then shot with a shotgun and a handgun and the body dropped into Alum Creek in Columbus.

A Page Of Opinion

Wrong Spirit

There is nothing like giving up on the ideals this bicentennial year is supposed to be celebrating. That in effect is what the Brookings Institution, which describes itself as a nonpartisan economic and political research organization, has done.

It won't make a lot of difference who is elected president this year, a Brookings study proclaims. The cancerous growth of government bureaucracy will go on just the same. Further, the institution isn't all that certain that confining the bureaucracy is a worthwhile goal.

"Attempting to cram the complexity and diversity of political institutions into a preconceived and rather arbitrary pattern of symmetry and simplicity and neatness, it could be argued, would do more violence to the system and generate more disorder than allowing it to establish its own untidy format," concluded the study of Brookings economist Herbert Kaufman.

Well, that indeed is a mouthful. What it seems to be saying is that denying big government its preordained destiny of becoming ever bigger might annoy some people and thus should not be attempted. That is certainly not the way the founding fathers saw things when they tried to limit the authority of government over the lives of the citizenry through an elaborate system of checks and balances.

It may be argued legitimately that an out-of-control bureaucracy is an awesome creature to stop. According to the Brookings study, of the 175 federal agencies which existed in 1923, 85 per cent were still going strong in 1973 — along with 246 new ones. Fifty-three new executive branch bodies were established in the first Nixon term — more, according to Kaufman, than in any other presidential term.

So controlling bureaucracy obviously is going to be difficult. But where is the spirit which used to say that accomplishing the impossible simply would take a little longer? Has it really turned into an attitude of "let's not bother, it probably wouldn't work anyway"?

Honeymoon

By JIM BISHOP

The sentimentalist asks for one more honeymoon. One more, and then one more. He knew that the erosion of time makes a husband look more like the father of his wife, but Milton A. Goldstandt enjoyed it. He was 80.

Whatever mark Goldstandt aspired to make is already chiseled in stone. He is an affluent financial consultant in Hallandale, Florida, a bald, molasses-skinned smiley who asks nothing more of life than health.

He flew his "Dorrie," an attractive gray-haired woman, to Las Vegas. Milt doesn't gamble, Dorrie does. She will bet on blackjack, a horse or bluff a hand of poker.

The remarkable feature of the honeymoon is that each indulges the other. Quietly, he stuffed her purse full of money. Silently, she helped him on with his elastic stockings, which control his phlebitis. She packed the infrared lamp which subdues chronic sinusitis.

He's a kisser. Milt embraced Dorrie at Las Vegas airport and palmed a few quarters. The machine clunked twice and dumped a hat full of coins in a tray.

Goldstandt wouldn't put his girl in a taxi. He hired a big black limousine. "This," he assured her, "is going to be one heck of a honeymoon. Besides, tomorrow is my 80th birthday."

They lived it up at The Dunes. He took a nap. She won $35 at blackjack. In the evening, they sat on a small porch, squinting at the chocolate mountains which form the dessert dish for Las Vegas.

The chief of service, Bob Barrossa, heard about the occasion. He snatched the news to Jean Magowan, public relations expert at The Dunes. She called Jim Brann at the Union Plaza, and others.

Within a few hours, the Goldstandts were overwhelmed with invitations. The city with the heart of sand opened its doors to the hand-holders.

Dining became an endurance contest. They saw the Casino de Paris show through a big leafy salad and a New York steak. At the Hilton, they applauded Liberace as a piano wire flew him back and forth across the stage, chirping, "Mary Poppins, eat your heart out."

Golf is Goldstandt's hobby. He had to rest up for nine holes each morning at The Dunes. The starter hooked him up with an attractive 21-year-old named Betsy McWilley. Milton, attired in gold slacks and shirt, put on his courtly manner.

The girl hits 260 yards from the men's tees. Gamblers back her for bets of $10,000 against scratch players. Milt hit the ball 210 down the fairway and dropped his condescending fatherly attitude.

He called her "Miss McWilley." She called him "Milt" and was on the green in two on a 525-yard par five. After nine humiliating holes, he invited her to lunch with his wife and told her of the times he played the game with Walter Hagen.

She grinned and said, "Who's that?" He shook hands and bade her adieu and explored Las Vegas from a taxi. At the new Union Plaza Hotel, Goldstandt was surprised to find that an arthritic Jewish woman played the slot machines and had just won an airplane standing in the lobby.

He walked into Stony's hockshop and said, "How's business?" Stony shrugged. "How should it be?" The hockshop is 45 years old. Long ago, the losers were cowboys. They hocked the saddles off their horses.

'Dr. Strangelove' Command Center Shown To Newsmen

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon has lifted the veil of mystery from its new command complex, briefly revealing a super-sophisticated, $15.4-million nerve center where U.S. military leaders sit in conference and direct U.S. forces during international crises.

Dr. Strangelove would feel right at home.

The National Military Command Center — a two-story complex located deep inside the Pentagon — is filled with the latest in communications and information-processing equipment.

The complex replaces the center set up 14 years ago for the Cuban missile crisis. Completed last February, it is more than double the size of the old unit.

The main room of the command center was used most recently during the tense evacuation of Americans from Lebanon.

A group of reporters was allowed to tour the center Friday under escort just days after a newsmagazine characterized it as so secret that the Pentagon's chief spokesman, assistant Defense Secretary William Greener, was not allowed to see all of it.

The main cog of the command center is a huge Emergency Conference Room which looks much the way the makers of the movie "Dr. Strangelove: or, How I Learned to Stop Worrying and Love the Bomb" depicted the U.S. military command center in its fictional account of apocalypse.

The real thing is equipped with six giant screens to display up-to-the-minute information on the status of U.S. forces, the deployment of Soviet missiles and other forces, and any other information required by the decision makers.

One lighted display board has President Ford's whereabouts followed in order by those who head the line of presidential succession: Vice President Nelson Rockefeller and House Speaker Carl Albert.

There is a teletype hotline to Moscow, and a staffer stands by fulltime to interpret any messages that might appear on the printer.

In a crisis, Defense Secretary Donald Rumsfeld, members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and other key officials sit in deep, tan leather swivel chairs around a wide conference table.

Fire Insurance Writing Ordered

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Fair Plan Underwriting Association has been ordered to begin writing fire insurance throughout the state.

State Insurance Director Harry V. Jump issued the order expanding the present definition of urban areas to insure that property insurance is available to nearly all Ohio citizens, he said.

The plan was created by the General Assembly in 1969 to make available property insurance to those unable to purchase it on the private market.

The order becomes effective Sept. 1, Jump said.

Today In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Monday, July 12, the 194th day of 1976. There are 172 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in the year 100 B.C., the Roman Emperor Julius Caesar was born.

On this date: In 1804, American statesman Alexander Hamilton died from a wound inflicted in a pistol duel with Vice President Aaron Burr.

In 1960, Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev said the U.S. Monroe Doctrine against European interference in Latin America no longer had any meaning.

In 1973, President Richard Nixon entered Bethesda Naval Hospital for treatment of viral pneumonia.

Ten years ago: Prime Minister Indira Gandhi of India began talks in Moscow with Soviet Premier Alexei Kosygin on her peace proposals for Vietnam.

Five years ago: Orangemen in Northern Ireland marched in city streets to celebrate a half century of Protestant rule.

One year ago: An American colonel kidnapped in Beirut, Ernest Morgan, was released unharmed to Lebanese Premier Rashid Karami.

Today's birthdays: Comedian Milton Berle is 68 years old. Republican Sen. Mark Hatfield of Oregon is 54.

Thought for today: Ask yourself whether you are happy, and you cease to be so. — John Stuart Mill, English philosopher and economist, 1806-1873.

Bicentennial footnote: Two hundred years ago today, a plan for a union of the 13 American Colonies, John Dickinson's Articles of Confederation and Perpetual Union, was presented to the Continental Congress in Philadelphia.

LAFF - A - DAY

"Hold it — before you sit down to eat, are you OURS?"

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

I was recently married. Before that, a gynecologist found that I have a "tipped womb." I am very concerned about this and don't want to worry my husband. Could this affect the possibility of having a baby? Are there operations that can fix this?

Mrs. S.P., Vt.

Dear Mrs. P.: You wisely had a premarital physical examination. I have often recommended that all people contemplating marriage give to each other the valuable gift of complete examination.

Your concern about a "tipped" womb would have been relieved immediately if you had discussed its implications with your gynecologist. Many patients, like yourself, are in a state of anxiety in the doctor's office. It is only when they get home that they think of the many questions they should have asked.

Most doctors understand that this frequently occurs. They welcome a telephone call or a visit during which time all anxiety-producing questions can be answered.

In most instances, a tipped uterus (womb) has no major importance. Rarely does it interfere with pregnancy unless there is an unusual degree of tipping, or retroversion.

At one time, many surgical procedures were used to correct this condition. Today, these procedures are done infrequently. The use of vaginal devices and special postural exercises are very often effective in maintaining the normal position of the uterus.

At your next examination, bring to your doctor a complete list of questions that concern you. Only then will your anxiety be alleviated.

Can laxatives taken over a long period of time cause any permanent damage?

Mr. I.M.G., Wis.

Dear Mr. G.:

There is a wide variety of laxatives. Some act as irritants. Others increase the bulk of the stool. Some alter the fluid contents of the large intestine.

Often, with the overuse of laxatives over a long period of time, the large intestine (large bowel) may lose its capacity to function normally. Changes in the thin muscular wall and lining of the bowel may be permanently affected by protracted overuse of laxatives.

Some types of colitis and inflammation of the intestinal wall may lead to chronic infection when harsh laxatives are used indiscriminately for a long time.

There are many ways to break the chronic laxative habit. Diet, intake of water and exercise can wean people away from this universal habit.

Guard Maneuvers Fatal To Horses?

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — The Wyoming National Guard conducted heavy artillery maneuvers at an Army base about 15 miles from where 40 wild horses later died mysteriously, it has been learned.

The firing took place after a government expert on wild horses warned against such activity at two sites closer to the herd's watering area.

The warning said noise from such firing could kill the animals. A copy of the warning was obtained by The Associated Press on Friday. It terms the firing near the watering area a violation of a federal wild horse protection law. With the copy was a cover letter dated May 11 which the Bureau of Land Management said was sent to the logistics director at Dugway Proving Ground, an Army base that was the site of the firing.

The warning said the firing would cause the horses "to stand on the periphery of the area they have been accustomed to using while doing without food and water. If this occurs, animal condition will be depressed and the death of a number of animals is probable."

Officials have been trying to find out why the 40 horses suddenly died in the remote desert area of Utah where the base is located. Preliminary laboratory tests have appeared to rule out such natural causes as disease or environmental contamination. Fresh water was available, but preliminary tests on the carcasses indicate a lack of water.

Urge Chiropractor License Changes

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A Findlay chiropractor has urged the state Board of Chiropractic Examiners to permit presently unlicensed chiropractors to legally practice in the state.

Dr. Gary Stocker told the board this week he believes there are 100 unlicensed chiropractors "practicing very quietly and illegally" in Ohio.

Speaking for the 142 member Chiropractic Association of Ohio, Stocker asked that the board hold a special examination or introduce legislation to permit such persons to be licensed.

The board told Stocker that an attorney general's opinion says that, under current law, the board cannot license chiropractors unless the applicants take an examination.

They'll Do It Every Time

Columbia Gas Employee Retires

PEARL M. SHAW

Pearl M. Shaw retired from Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation in June. He is a resident of South Bloomingville. Shaw was employed as a foreman at Sugar Grove, Ohio and had more than 30 years of service.

He began his career with the Company in 1946 as a manual laborer at Athens, Ohio. Shaw was employed as a well tender in Sugar Grove from 1947 to 1958 and a well foreman from 1958 until 1974. In 1974, he became a transmission foreman at Sugar Grove and in 1975 he became foreman at the same location.

A graduate of Benton Rural High School in South Bloomingville, Shaw attends the South Bloomingville United Methodist Church. From 1942 until 1945, he served in the Army as a staff sergeant in the 3rd Engineering Special Brigade. Shaw is a member of the American Legion in Athens, Ohio.

Mrs. Shaw is the former Leila Brown of South Bloomingville.

Stoutsville Council OKs 1977 Budget

The 1977 budget for the village of Stoutsville was submitted and accepted by the Village Council when it met on July 7.

Three ordinances were also approved and voted in. One regulates the parking of commercial vehicles in the village, the second provides penalties for citation tags issued for the first ordinance, and the third provides a curfew for minors from 10:30 p.m. to 5 a.m.

Copies of these ordinances are posted at the following places for reading: Clearcreek Bank, Lands Garage, Ceramic Barn, Stoutsville Market, and Stoutsville Restaurant.

The street committee reported that most of the repair work has been completed.

Dick Riffle Jr., deputy marshal, reported on condition of the police cruiser and asked council to check on the procurement of another vehicle.

Several visitors present were concerned with trailers in the village, hiring of village employees, and vacating of alleys in the village.

Council renewed insurance on the village truck with the DeLong Insurance Agency, and the Clerk-Treasurer gave a report of fund balances.

Those in attendance were Mayor E. A. Thiel, Councilmen Robert Brobst, Charles Harrison, William Martin, Lloyd Meyer, Leewood Rhymer, Ellsworth Wright, Deputy Marshal Dick Riffle Jr. and Clerk Mary E. Meyer.

Law Firm Employed By Commissioners

An application was filed and granted this morning in Pickaway County Common Pleas Court for the county commissioners to retain legal services.

Judge Guy G. Cline signed the journal entry authorizing the commissioners and the county prosecutor to retain Squire, Sanders and Dempsey for legal advice concerning submitting a bond issue to the voters.

Deputies Probe Arson

Pickaway County Sheriff's Deputies are investigating a deliberate fire in a 130-acre straw field on the Dawson-Yanketown Road.

The Mount Sterling Fire Department extinguished the blaze, which destroyed about 60 acres of straw owned by Jeff Hackson, Route 2, Mount Sterling.

The 5:05 p.m. Sunday blaze was the second time the field caught fire during the weekend, leading deputies to suspect arson.

Damage was estimated at $4,500.

Two Columbus men were assaulted and their car damaged by unknown assailants 3 a.m. Sunday.

The incident occurred on County Road 500 at the Deer Creek Bridge.

The men, Paul Wyant, 19, and Steve Myers, 20, were struck by the assailants. Their fishing equipment early morning hours today.

At Akron, lightning touched off a four-alarm fire that destroyed the M.A. Knight chemical plant, and Portage County deputies said lightning caused several house fires in that county.

At Port Clinton, the Coast Guard said James Woodward, 28, of Toledo was missing and presumed drowned after the transom on which the motor was clamped came off the back of his 16-foot outboard in high waves about two miles offshore.

Port Clinton police said four children who were with Woodward clung to lines attached to the swamped boat. They were rescued by Bill Kessor, Ottawa County recorder, who came to their aid in his 31-foot cabin cruiser.

Woodward went under while trying to retrieve a line that had drifted away from the boat, police said.

The passengers, ages 9, 10, 11 and 12, were the children of a friend of Woodward's, Geraldine Monday of Toledo, police reported.

Thunderstorms moved south from northeast Ohio and western Pennsylvania overnight, and by early today the activity had extended—but weakened as well—from central Indiana and northern Kentucky into western Virginia. During Sunday evening, several central Indiana counties reported heavy rain and strong winds.

Most of the activity Sunday afternoon, including strong winds, hail and heavy rain with the lines of thunderstorms was in eastern Ohio and western Pennsylvania. Six tornadoes dipped down, five in western Pennsylvania and one in northeast Ohio.

Heavy rains in northeast Ohio brought rapid rises on the streams and flood warnings.

Elsewhere, scattered thunderstorms reached from Texas into the lower Mississippi valley. Isolated thunderstorms dotted the Rockies, Arizona and parts of the Pacific northwest.

Southern Texas continued to suffer the brunt of the heavy rain with flooding coming to sections of the Rio Grande valley. Flooding was reported by the police at Eagle Pass, Tex., and some highways were closed or under water in the Del Rio area. A flash flood warning was in effect until dawn in Kinney, Maverick, Dimmit and Val Verde counties. A flash flood watch was on for south portions of west Texas.

Sinatra Married To Barbara Marx

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — Former Vice President Spiro Agnew was there, and so was Ronald Reagan, candidate for the Republican presidential nomination. It was the wedding of Frank Sinatra and Barbara Marx, three months before the date they had announced.

Freeman Gosden, 77, who played Amos in the old "Amos 'n Andy" radio show, was best man at the ceremony Sunday.

Sinatra had previously said he and his bride would marry Oct. 10 in Beverly Hills, Calif.

was tossed in the creek and windshield of their car was cracked.

Deputy R. L. Phillips is investigating the incident.

Thieves pried a window at the 11187 Darby Creek Road home of Joan E. Tipton Thursday between 9 and 10 p.m. to take cash and a watch.

The lady's gold watch is valued at $100 and $62 in cash was also taken.

Deputy Sheriff Larry Kellenberger charged Walter Hastings with possession of marijuana following a 6:55 p.m. Saturday incident at the Williamsport Community Park.

Deputy Kellenberger, on patrol, stopped near Deer Creek at the southwest corner of the park to talk with a group of people sitting near the bridge on cement pilings.

One of the men, identified as Hastings, jumped into the creek with a brown paper bag when the deputy approached, and then climbed back out and took his seat on a piling, according to the report.

The deputy fished the bag from a tree stump and discovered that it contained a green vegetation which appeared to be marijuana.

The substance is being processed at London's Bureau of Criminal Identification lab, and Hastings has been placed under $5,000 bond.

Glenn Set For Demo Keynote Talk

NEW YORK (AP) — John Glenn, one of America's keynoters in space, opens the Democratic National Convention tonight as a senator from Ohio and a name on an exclusive list: one of those who might be chosen as Jimmy Carter's running mate.

It's been more than 14 years since Glenn took the 4-hour, 55 minute ride in a tiny capsule that pulled America even in the space race and made Glenn a national hero.

The passing years have been kind. Glenn, who was 40 when he became the first American to orbit the earth, still has the trim figure of an astronaut. His

GSA Sells Used Cars

The U. S. General Services Administration, business manager of the Federal Government, announced today the offering of 60 used Government automotive vehicles by auction sale.

Frank Resnik, Regional Administrator of GSA's midwest region, said the sale will include sedans, a station wagon, a Cadillac DeVille, Fords, Chevrolets, Plymouths, Ambassadors, Rebels, and Matadors, and will be conducted at the Federal Office Building, Conference Room 31st Floor, 1240 E. Ninth St., Cleveland.

Interested bidders may inspect the vehicles at the GSA Vehicle Parking and Storage Lot, 703 Eagle Ave., Cleveland, between 8:30 a.m. and 4 p.m. on July 13 and 14, and 8:30 a.m. until 10 a.m. on July 15. The sale will begin at 10:30 a.m., local time, on Thursday, July 15.

Complete information on this sale (5FWS-TQ-01) is available from the Chief, Sales Branch, Federal Supply Service, Personal Property Division, John C. Kluczynski Federal Building, 230 S. Dearborn St., Chicago, Illinois 60604. Telephone: 312-353-6061.

hair is a little thinner, but age hasn't slowed him down.

He's able to say now that he can go into a crowd and nobody asks him anymore if he drinks the orange-flavored beverage that astronauts took into space.

People began talking about Glenn running for office while he was still getting the ticktape treatment for the Feb. 20, 1962, flight.

At first he said he really didn't have any plans, and that politically he was an independent.

But that didn't last long. He became close to John and Robert Kennedy and their families, attended White House parties, water-skied with Jacqueline Kennedy and snow-skied and boated with the Robert Kennedys.

When Robert died by gunshot in 1968, the job of telling the six Kennedy children who were in Los Angeles fell to Glenn. "It was one of the hardest things I ever had to do," he said later.

The brothers Kennedy helped influence him to enter politics. He ran as a Democrat in the Ohio senatorial primary in 1964 but had to withdraw after a bathroom fall that caused dizziness for nine months.

After he recovered, Glenn gave up his Marine Corps commission of colonel and joined the board of directors of Royal Crown Cola. He became president of its international division and resigned to make a second try for the Senate in 1970.

He lost in the primary to Cleveland lawyer Howard Metzenbaum by 13,000 votes out of more than 900,000 cast. Metzenbaum lost in the general election to Republican Robert Taft Jr.

In 1973, Ohio's other senator, William B. Saxbe, became attorney general and Metzenbaum was appointed in his place. Glenn and Metzenbaum faced off again in the 1974 primary and this time the former astronaut won. The following November he beat Ralph Perk of Cleveland, a Republican.

As a senator, Glenn has concentrated on energy legislation. He has fought against removing federal controls from oil prices. He has been active in trying to strengthen government controls over handling of nuclear materials. He has been pushing for laws to increase incentives for home and factory improvements to save energy.

Those making up lists of potential vice presidential nominees to be considered by Carter, consistently have included Glenn. Carter emissaries have talked with the senator.

The hero business is a fleeting one at best. In 1962, hundreds of thousands lined parade routes to see Glenn, the man who rode Friendship 7 three times around the earth.

Now, when young people tour the Capitol, few heads turn when Glenn walks by. And many of those who do recognize him think he is the first man to walk on the moon.

Indiana Delegates Seek Carter Visit

NEW YORK (AP) — Indiana delegates sought a visit from Jimmy Carter today as they tried to rally all of the state's 75 Democratic National Convention votes behind the likely presidential nominee.

Four delegates, all originally committed to Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace, still were refusing to join the Carter bandwagon before today's scheduled caucus.

Carter, who carried the state's May 4 primary with 67 per cent, was invited to that meeting.

MRS. EMILY DIANNE CROSS

Grandfathers Officiate At Frazer-Cross Wedding

The grandfathers of Miss Emily Dianne Frazer and Mr. Steven Fredrick Cross united the couple in marriage Saturday at the Community United Methodist Church, Circleville.

The Rev. Herbert M. Frazer, the bride's grandfather, and the Rev. Ralph M. Ground, grandfather of Mr. Cross, officiated at the 2:30 p.m. double-ring service.

Miss Frazer, the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. David Frazer, 346 Meadow Lane, was given in marriage by her father. Mr. Cross is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick L. Cross, Norwalk.

Organist Donald Metzler and pianist Mrs. Stephen Rust combined for a duet for special music during the ceremony, and Rob Englehart was the soloist.

The bride wore a formal length gown of white silk organza designed with a form-fitting empire bodice that was accented with floral Venice lace, a high duchess neckline, and bishop sleeves with French cuffs. The A-line silhouette skirt featured scalloped Venice lace which fell from the waist to the hemline and circled into a chapel train bordered with lace.

A self bow of organza adorned the back of the gown, and a Juliet style headpiece fashioned of Venice lace to match the gown held a chapel length veil and blusher bordered with floral Venice lace.

She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow sweetheart roses, Steffanotis, yellow and white daisies, and baby's breath, accented with touches of peach and light blue flowers.

Maid of honor was Miss Gale Heaney, a friend of the couple. Bridesmaids were Miss Ann Myers, friend of the bride; Miss Marian Cross, sister of the groom; Miss Emily Frazer, cousin of the bride; and Miss Debra Morrison, friend of the bride.

All wore formal length gowns of light blue qiana knit with three-quarter length sleeves and smocked bodices.

The maid of honor carried a colonial bouquet of yellow daisies, white daisies, baby's breath, and a hint of peach carnations. The bridesmaids carried colonial bouquets of yellow and white daisies and baby's breath.

John Reese, friend of the couple, served as best man. Ushers were Dwight Frazer, brother of the bride; Ted Rust, friend of the couple; Ed Battiste, friend of the couple; and Joe Arthur, friend of the groom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Frazer chose a formal gown of daffodil tiffany knit with sleeveless bodice and petal cut chiffon overlay accenting the form-fitting skirt. A removable chiffon cape covered her shoulders.

The bridegroom's mother wore a formal gown of light green tiffany knit. The gown featured a V-neck, empire waistline, and angel sleeves. She wore a jeweled pendant which softly gathered the gown at the center.

Following a church reception, a buffet dinner was served to relatives and the wedding party at the Pickaway Country Club.

Hostesses at the church reception were relatives and friends of the bride and groom. Mrs. Judy Hatfield was in charge of the guest book.

For the wedding trip to the Canadian Rockies, the bride chose a three-piece ensemble of frosted green linen.

The new Mrs. Cross, a 1972 graduate of Capital University, will be teaching piano at the Capital Conservatory of Music in September.

Mr. Cross, a 1972 Capital University graduate, will be teaching speech in secondary schools.

The couple will live in Bexley. Out-of-town wedding guests were from Ohio, Indiana, Mississippi, New Jersey and Maryland.

Miss Barnhart, Mr. Hart Wed In Kingston Presbyterian Church

Miss Brenda Kay Barnhart and Terry Allen Hart were united in marriage in the Kingston Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Wayne Wardwell performed the double ring service for the couple.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Barnhart, 11336 Hayesville Road, Kingston. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Melford A. Hart, Laurelville.

The altar was decorated with two candelabras with white candles and an altar vase of gladioli and multi-colored daisies.

Mrs. Martha Hohenstein was the organist and Mr. Roger Allen the vocalist for the nuptial selections preceding the ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her parents.

The empire bodice bridal gown featured a pinafore look in white organza with Venice lace trim. The bodice was accented with tiny pearls. The long sleeves were of white organza with Venice lace down the side and tiny ruffles at the wrist. The full skirt flowed gracefully with a chapel length train. The bride's waist length veil of silk illusion was accented with streamers of tiny white daisies and the cap had tiny pearls.

She carried a bouquet of multi-colored daisies with baby's breath and trimmed with white ribbon. She wore a gold cross and heart shaped earrings, a gift of the bridegroom.

The matron of honor Mrs. Beverley Barnhart, sister-in-law of the bride, was attired in a yellow gingham floor length gown accented with a satin ribbon at the empire waistline. She carried a bouquet of multi-colored daisies with yellow ribbon.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Judy Parker, sister of the bride, Miss Debbie Penwell, Miss Chris Boldozer and Miss Penny Conrad. Mrs. Parker wore a pink and white floor length gingham gown with white satin ribbon at the empire waistline. She carried a bouquet of multi-colored daisies tied with a pink ribbon. Miss Penwell wore a green and white gingham floor length gown with white satin ribbon at the empire waistline. Her bouquet was of multi-colored daisies with green ribbon.

Miss Boldozer was attired in a lavender and white gingham floor length gown with white satin ribbon at the empire waistline. Her bouquet of multi-colored daisies was accented with a lavender ribbon.

Miss Conrad wore an orange and white gingham floor length gown with white satin ribbon at the empire waistline. Her bouquet of multi-colored daisies was tied with orange ribbon. All wore necklaces, gifts of the bride.

The flower girl, Miss Amber Reed, a friend of the groom, wore a blue and white floor length gingham dress accented with tiny blue satin bows in her hair. She carried a basket of multi-colored daisy petals and wore a yellow gold cross necklace, a gift of the bride.

John Conrad, Laurelville, was the ringbearer. Mike Hart served his brother as best man. Ushers were Sam Parker, Jim Barnhart, Nevin Johnston, and Daniel DeLong.

The bride's mother wore a floor length blue floral gown with white accessories. She carried a corsage of white carnations with blue ribbon.

The bridegroom's mother wore a floor length green gown with long sheer sleeves and white accessories. She carried a corsage of white carnations tied with a green ribbon.

The reception was held in the church basement. The five-tier white wedding cake was decorated with yellow daisies and topped with the bride and groom figures. The newlyweds stood beneath a flower covered archway as they ate the first piece of cake. Hostesses were Donna Moss, Thelma Penwell, Faye Baylous and Ellen Roe. Connie Rohr presided at the guest book.

For a short wedding trip the bride wore a two piece peach colored pant suit with white accessories. The couple resides at Route 2, Amanda.

The new Mrs. Barnhart is a 1975 graduate of Logan Elm High School and is employed at Heck's as a cashier. Mr. Hart is a 1976 graduate of Logan Elm and is employed at General Electric.

Wedding guests were from Whisler, Laurelville, Circleville, Amanda, Hallsville, Tarlton and Chillicothe.

Honored guests were Mrs. Myrtle Barnhart, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. Dorothy Hart, grandmother of the bridegroom.

HAM CHEESE SNACKS

Mix the deviled ham from a 2 1/4-ounce can with 2 tablespoons of mayonnaise. Split 3 English muffins and spread cut sides with the ham mixture. Place a slice of tomato on each muffin half and top with a slice of cheddar cheese. Bake in a preheated 450-degree oven until hot through and cheese melts — 5 to 8 minutes. Top with paper-thin rings of sweet onion and green pepper. Serve at once. Makes 3 to 6 servings.

LOW-CALORIE DINNER

Zucchini soup, fish filets, brown rice, fruit salad, and beverage.

Zucchini Soup

Enticing flavor and a pretty green color.

3 chicken bouillon cubes
1 teaspoon curry powder
2 1/2 cups boiling water
3 medium-small (about 1 pound) zucchini, unpared and grated
1 large onion, thinly sliced
1/2 cup milk

Dissolve the bouillon cubes and curry powder in the boiling water. Add the prepared zucchini and onion. Simmer, covered, for about 1/2 hour. Puree in an electric blender. Stir in the milk and reheat. Makes about 1 1/4 quarts.

AT CANAL DAYS — Pumpkin Show Queen Sally Schlegel and Patty Ford, Queen of the Ashville Fourth of July Festival, visited the Canal Days Festival in Canal Fulton Sunday.

Cost Of Assembly Reaches $15 Million

COLUMBUS (AP) — The task of writing the state's laws is a $7.5 million dollar business in Ohio. The current legislature has appropriated just over $15 million for the 1976-77 budget period.

The total is up about $4 million from the cost of running the Ohio General Assembly in the 1974-75 biennium, with the House and Senate sharing about equally in the increase.

The Senate's total appropriation for the two-year period ending next June 30 is $5,758,632—up 50.6 per cent from the $3,824,502 it spent the previous two fiscal years.

The House budget is up 28.9 per cent, from last biennium's cost of $7,178,735 to the $9,250,000 appropriated for the current two-year period.

The figures, from the state Office of Budget and Management, represent lawmakers' salaries, pay of secretaries, legislative aides and pages, and operations of the House and Senate clerks' offices. Part of the money also goes for maintenance and equipment.

The number of people on the Senate payroll has increased steadily since 1974, climbing from 129 two years ago to 137 last year and 172 this fiscal year, including senators.

House employment was 223 in fiscal 1974, 267 last year and slipped to 249 this year.

That figures out to an expense of $174,504 for each senator and $93,434 for each representative as of March. Comparable figures for fiscal 1974 were $115,894 for the Senate and $72,512 for the House.

Those figures do not include the operations of the Legislative Anti-Israeli Speeches Set In U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The Security Council today begins hearing a parade of Third World countries calling for condemnation of Israel for its commando rescue of more than 100 hostages from Uganda a week ago.

Mauritius, Benin, Guinea and Guyana were to speak in the council debate in support of Uganda's charges that Israel committed "barbaric, unprovoked and naked aggression."

The United States, trying to use the debate to focus attention on the hijacking and terrorism that caused the Israeli raid, was consulting with Israel and other allies about a resolution condemning international terrorism and establishing some sort of mechanism to deal with it.

"We have not yet reached a consensus," Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger told a news conference in Washington Saturday. He said if agreement was not reached, "we will put it forth ourselves."

The Americans were reported to have drafted a general condemnation of international terrorism and a suggestion that Israel compensate Uganda for its losses in the raid. But council sources said the United States could not get the nine votes necessary for adoption of such a resolution.

African and other Third World nations circulated a resolution condemning Israel and demanding compensation for Uganda. The Soviet Union and China were backing it, but the United States was certain to veto it if it came to a vote.

Announcements were made concerning the following upcoming events: Aug. 1 to 7, County Fair; Aug. 13, Summer Session of Pomona; Aug. 15, Pomona picnic; and Aug. 17, Saltcreek Subordinate Picnic.

"Horizons of '76" was the theme for the program in charge of Miss McKenzie, the lecturer. Margaret Wolfe gave a review of the lives of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. All present participated in a contest concerning the advent of modern conveniences as well as citing a way to conserve energy. Hoyt Timmons read "A Tribute to Our Country" which was written by a past Nat'l lecturer.

During the concluding social fellowship, refreshments were served by Esther Collins, Robert Collins Sr., Robert Collins Jr., and Darlene Lands.

Westinghouse Talks Held

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Westinghouse Electric Corp. and its four major unions have extended their contract talks on a day-to-day basis, averting a strike by 55,000 employees that had been threatened for today.

Negotiators announced the extension an hour before the midnight Sunday deadline. A new deadline was set for Saturday, July 17, but a spokesman for one union said "we could invoke the strike at any time."

A Westinghouse spokesman said the extension was approved on the recommendation of a team of federal mediators.

Neither the company nor the unions would discuss issues remaining to be resolved.

Unions involved in the talks are the International Union of Electrical Workers, the United Electrical Workers, the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, and the Federation of Westinghouse Salaried Employees, a white-collar union.

CB Stolen

A citizen band radio was taken from a dump truck parked at the rear of the 210 Logan St. home of John Fyffe.

Thieves broke into the wing glass on the driver's door of the truck, Ptl. Ron Smith said.

The radio is valued at $80.

British Cockney Plays Indian Chief

BEFORE AND AFTER — Bert Taylor, left, appears in street clothes. The British Cockney actor appears on the right in his make-up for the role in Chief Black Hoof in "Tecumseh" outdoor drama.

From the London stage, to the hills of Southern Ohio is a long trip. But for actor, Bert L. Taylor, it's been an interesting one.

Taylor, who plays Chief Black Hoof in "Tecumseh!" outdoor drama, Chillicothe, Ohio, is a genuine Cockney. He was born in St. Bartholomew's, London, (where all true Cockneys are born) and grew up as a peddler in the city's street markets.

At age eleven, Bert got his first "big break." He was hired as a magician's stooge at the "Collins Music Hall" — where Charles Chaplin got his start. "I was part of a vanishing act," remembers Bert. "The magician put me in one chest and I reappeared in another." After those humble beginnings, Bert joined the comedy troupe of "Cook, Wells and Harvey" and spent several rollicking years in British music halls. Finally he was accepted in the renowned "Potters Bar Repertory Company" and began his career as a serious actor.

Since arriving in the U.S. in 1967, Bert has appeared in 26 major productions, including eleven months as the famous Cockney "Alfie Dolittle" in "My Fair Lady." He also owns a theatre in Ocala, Fla.

Having spent three fourths of his life on stage, Bert thought nothing could surprise him. But, when "Tecumseh!" producer-director, "Rusty" Mundell offered him the role of an Indian, Bert was honestly speechless. He had eleven acting offers, including major Shakespeare roles, but he couldn't get the Indian role off his mind. "Every American wants to act in Shakespeare," he quips, "Well, this Cockney wanted to play an Indian... it was a challenge." Needless to say, he accepted Mundell's offer.

Changing from a "still-young" Cockney to an 82 year old Indian Chief is quite a job. To begin with, Bert became a mini-expert on Black Hoof and the Shawnee. He studied the Chief's life from his birth in Florida to his death, west of the Mississippi, at age 105. Based on what he learned,

Klipstine New Legion Commander

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Robert L. Klipstine of West Milton has been elevated to commander of the Ohio American Legion at the wrap up of the group's 58th annual convention here.

Klipstine was succeeded as first vice commander Sunday by Melvin D. Chapman of Beverly, while Elden O. Bohn of Columbus was elected to succeed Chapman as second vice commander.

Jack Scott of Bainbridge was named treasurer, Arthur H. Euler, Bowling Green, national executive committeeman, and Charles R. Green, Warren, alternate national committeeman.

On Saturday, the legion's auxiliary presented its annual Golden Press award to the Elyria Chronicle-Telegram.

The award was for publishing "The Story of William Ingersoll" by Cordella Robbins, Sunday editor.

Television Station WLW-T, Cincinnati, and Tom Robertson, executive producer of children's programming, were presented a Golden Mike award for their Bicentennial program "Young People's Special."

Radio Station WCVO, Cahanna, Ohio, received a Golden Mike award for its 15 hours of Bicentennial programming entitled "One Nation Under God." The award also cited Richard Shoemaker, the producer-director.

A piece of the energy puzzle.

Inflation: enemy at sea.

We all know about inflation. Everything costs more than it did five years ago... or two years ago.

Still, there are some things we can't do without. Inflation or no, we've got to go where the natural gas is... like way out in the Gulf of Mexico.

For example: The rig Seduth 1 is drilling for natural gas 100 miles off the Texas coast in 500 feet of water. Out there, the physical problems alone spell high stakes. But look what inflation is doing:

	1967	1976
Rig construction cost	$14,000,000	$30,000,000
Rental rate per day	15,000	25,000

The numbers are big. Here's an example that's easier to grasp. Common 9" well casing (pipe) cost $9 a foot six years ago. Today it costs $19 a foot! At an average depth of 11,000 feet, this means $110,000 more per well.

If gas is found out there, it'll take four to six years, working around the clock, before the gas can be delivered to your home. If inflation isn't brought under control, think what six years will do to our gas bills.

Worse yet, think of the cost of going without natural gas.

Weekend Traffic Toll Reaches 12

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A two-car crash Sunday near Wilmington in Clinton County killed one person and injured eight others, boosting Ohio's weekend traffic death toll to 12, the state highway patrol reported.

Dead in the accident was Wayne E. Hunt, 40, of Dayton.

The patrol reported one double fatality accident during the period that began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended at midnight Sunday.

The dead:

SUNDAY
ATHENS — Jerome E. Dickson, 27, Stewart, in a two-car crash on Ohio 50 in Athens County near Athens.

COLUMBUS — Robert W. Farmer Jr., 19, Lancaster, and Vicky L. Handley, 18, Lancaster, in a one-car accident on a city street.

MASSILON — Beverly Shaver, 24, North Canton, when her car hit a pole on Smith-Kramer Rd. northwest of Alliance.

WILMINGTON — Wayne E. Hunt, 40, Dayton, in a two-car crash that left eight other persons injured, near Wilmington in Clinton County.

BOWLING GREEN — Robin Rahe, 19, Pemberville, when his motorcycle crashed on Ohio 105 in Wood County.

SATURDAY
PORT CLINTON — Frederick Sandrock, 29, of Curtice, Ohio, when a train struck his car at a crossing on an Ottawa County road.

CINCINNATI — Charles E. Reed, 43, Alexandria, Ky., when his car crossed the median on a city street and struck a utility pole.

FRIDAY NIGHT

BUCYRUS — William Taylor, 18, Bucyrus, when his car and a freight train collided at a crossing.

CIRCLEVILLE — Richard W. Wagner, 26, Bloomingville, in an accident on Ohio 56 in Hocking County.

CAMDEN — Kenneth Willis, 23, Camden, in a two-car accident on Ohio 744 in Preble County.

CLEVELAND — John Ardner III, Cleveland, hit by a car on a Cleveland city street.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

"The law, though it creaks, works." So said an eminent English jurist a few years ago. But if the law creaks too much and works too little, then justice is not being done. It is this problem that the Constitution deals with by requiring a "speedy trial" in all criminal cases.

The requirement is basic. Most constitutional violations that occur during a trial can be corrected simply by granting the defendant a new trial. But if the proceedings are not "speedy," then the defendant — guilty or not — goes scotfree.

How speedy does a trial have to be to be constitutional? Consider a case:

A man accused of burglary, unable to make bail, languished in jail for over four months waiting to be tried. During this period he sought again and again to have his case heard. But the state succeeded again and again in having it postponed — always on some flimsy pretext.

A court finally ruled that the man had been deprived of his constitutional rights and must be released.

But, by contrast:

Another man complained that it took more than a year for his larceny case to come to trial. However, it also appeared that on three occasions, when his case was called, he fired his lawyer. The court said he could not object to a delay he had caused himself.

Nor must speed be achieved at the expense of fairness. The Supreme Court has pointed out that much of the law's deliberate pacing is due to safeguards designed to protect the accused.

The Court added: "Unreasonable speed would have a deleterious effect both upon the rights of the accused and upon the ability of society to protect itself."

O-I Declares Dividend

The board of directors of Owens-Illinois, Inc., today declared dividends of 47 cents per common share, payable Sept. 15 to shareholders of record Aug. 6; $1 per 4 per cent Cumulative Preferred share, payable Oct. 1 to shareholders of record Sept. 3; and $1.18% for each $4.75 Cumulative Convertible Preference share, payable Oct. 1 to shareholders of record Aug. 27.

Owens-Illinois has paid dividends quarterly, without interruption, since 1907.

The O-I board of directors has raised the common share dividend for the past five consecutive years. The dividend was last increased in February.

Owens-Illinois is the 88th largest industrial company in the U.S. and a major producer of glass, paper, plastic, and metal packaging products.

Drug Prices Vary Across State

By STEVEN R. HURST
Associated Press Writer

A random check of drug prices around Ohio has turned up what may be obvious — prices vary. But not so obvious is just how divergent those prices can be.

Pharmacists surveyed were asked their prices for five drugs described by one as among "our fastest movers." The widest price variance showed up in the cost of a cough medicine, Phenergan expectorant with codeine. A Cleveland druggist gets $3.23 for 120 cubic centimeters of the compound while a discount pharmacy in Akron asks $1.98 for the same strength and amount.

Other drugs checked and their amount were: Darvon compound-65, 12 capsules; Tetracycline, 250 milligram dosage, 20 capsules; Valium, 5 milligram dosage, 30 capsules; and Ovulen-21, a month's supply.

Darvon, a pain pill, ranged in price from $3.23 in Cleveland down to 99 cents in Akron. For Tetracycline the range was $2 from a $3.29 high again in Cleveland to a low of $1.29 in Akron. Tetracycline is a widely used antibiotic.

Valium, a tranquilizer and the highest priced drug in the survey, ranged from $5.24 in Athens to a low, again at the Akron store, of $2.75 — a difference of $2.49.

The last drug checked was Ovulen-21, a birth control compound and the least expensive per unit of all the drugs. That drug involved the least price divergence, ranging from $2.49 to $2.19.

After seeing the wide variation in price of the drugs, the obvious question is why.

One answer is the different markup systems used by pharmacists; another is the different buying capacities. A chain of stores can buy in larger volume and get a better wholesale price than a small corner druggist.

Cameron Close, executive director of the Ohio State Pharmaceutical Association, sees another reason for the price differences, or, at least, for drug buyers' tolerance for the divergence.

He says some drug buyers are willing to pay more for their prescriptions because of the service they receive and because of the location of the pharmacy.

Another reason, not mentioned by Close, could be ignorance on the part of those drug buyers who seldom have to use prescription drugs. Pharmacists in Ohio do not widely advertise their prices, a fact which would force a shopper into making several telephone calls to local druggists for price checks.

To erase that consumer headache, the U.S. Supreme Court recently struck down laws in 29 states which forbid advertising drug prices. The ruling doesn't affect Ohio pharmacists because this state has no such law. But the lack of such a law and the concurrent lack of advertising here might lead to the question of the effect of the court's ruling anywhere.

Pharmacists can't be forced to advertise drug prices, and as Close explained, a small corner drug store operation probably couldn't afford extensive advertising.

One step taken recently in Ohio to aid consumers was the passage of a bill by the legislature which makes it illegal for pharmacists to refuse to give price information for prescription drugs over the telephone.

That bill also allows the state Board of Pharmacy to prepare a list of the 100 most widely used prescription drugs and the poster could contain a price listing by the particular pharmacy. However, a board spokesman has said the organization has no plans at present to prepare such a list.

Food Stamps Keep URW Members Going

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
Jim Merriner, 22, got married six weeks before the rubberworkers struck.

"I'm crazy, I guess," he joked four months later while standing on the picket line at the Goodyear plant in Marysville, Ohio.

His wife, Pamela, 19, will be a senior in high school next fall. But it is her $130 check every two weeks for summer work in the school office plus food stamps that is keeping them going as the strike by 60,000 rubberworkers stretched into its 80th day today.

"Since I got married, I haven't gone out and bought a lot of things," says Merriner. "Before the strike, I saved every penny, and had about $800.

That's depleted and all I've got left is about $300 in savings bonds. Food stamps are the one thing really saving us."

Rubberworkers in 21 states from coast-to-coast are doing much the same as Merriner to ride out the strike, counting on working wives to help pay the bills, digging into their savings, drawing food stamps, postponing vacations, moonlighting, farming, eating out less, getting extensions on mortgage and consumer loans made before the walkout April 21, and buying less now.

Officials of the Firestone and Goodyear banks in the rubber town of Akron, Ohio, where 11,000 men are on strike, report there is a drain on savings accounts that became noticeable in June.

"Of course, the strike is having an impact," says Ronald Glosser, president of the Goodyear bank. "Savings are off slightly somewhat from last month. Loan delinquencies are about what could be expected. The increase in delinquencies is not as great as anticipated. There has not been a single foreclosure on homes. We haven't forced anyone's hand."

Like most banks, Goodyear is either granting extensions or requiring the individual to pay only the interest on the loan each month, defraying the principal.

Ross Oxley, a vice president of the Firestone bank, says that "surprisingly enough the delinquencies have been relatively minor."

"In my opinion," says Oxley, "people knew it was coming and had really put savings away. There is a drain that became fairly noticeable during the month of June. This time of the year it is normal to have a little bit of a runoff. It is the height of the buying season for home remodeling.

Roundtown Hobby Shop To Offer Furniture Seminar

JOHN TAYLOR

John Taylor, 44, Brown St., has attended a seminar on miniature furniture and has scheduled an open house at his store, Roundtown Hobby Shop, 236 E. Franklin St., to unveil and demonstrate this fascinating new hobby.

The open house is scheduled for Aug. 14 from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. and Aug. 15 from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Coffee and other light refreshments will be served.

Taylor attended a seminar sponsored by ACTO at Cincinnati from June 13, to June 17 to learn how to teach this fine art. He will be arranging classes at his store on miniature furniture. Further details can be obtained by contacting him at the Roundtown Hobby Shop, 474-4758.

X-ACTO recently introduced a line of high-quality miniature furniture called the House of Miniatures Collectors Series. Items are authentic reproductions in miniature of the regular-size pieces created by master colonial craftsmen like Chippendale and Hepplewhite.

This miniature furniture is precision-scaled, one inch to one foot. X-ACTO Chief Executive Officer John Thomas points out that "with just patience and the proper training, virtually anyone — including children — can create beautiful pieces with our items."

Taylor said that he was delighted to participate in the seminar, and looks forward to teaching this exciting new hobby-craft.

Changes Urged At County Jail

BEDFORD, Ind. (AP) — State inspector Walter Smith has recommended that meal hours be changed and that the mattresses and blankets in the Lawrence County jail be replaced. Smith made the recommendations after charges were made that inmates are fed inadequately and are forced to live in unsanitary conditions.

However, Lawrence Superior Court Judge Wayne Bakeg has denied a request for a detailed inspection of the jail by a county grand jury.

Several sheriff's deputies have also joined a member of the merit board of the county's Sheriff's Department in assailing conditions at the jail.

The merit board member — Don Trueblood of Mitchell — has called on state and federal officials to investigate the charges pertaining to food and cleanliness. He also charges that security is lax.

School District Receives Funds

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Dayton city school district will receive $1.67 million in federal funds to assist with desegregation, state Supt. of Public Instruction Martin W. Essex said Friday.

The funds, available immediately, will be used to implement a plan developed to comply with a federal court order to desegregate Dayton schools.

This is the largest grant provided for desegregation to a school district in Ohio, Essex said.

Pittsburgh Rips Into Reds

CINCINNATI (AP) — Save the wreaths. Hold the obituaries. That "body" in the National League East is still kicking.

Take it from Danny Murtaugh, the Pittsburgh Pirates ain't dead yet.

"We haven't given up yet. I don't remember any manager throwing in the flag in July," said the Pirates manager on Sunday as Pittsburgh ended the first half of the season a distant 10 games back of runaway leader Philadelphia.

Pittsburgh had just swept two straight games from the Cincinnati Reds for a split of a fourgame series. "Anytime you are 10 games back it's a big job, but it's still July," said Murtaugh. "What will it take? Just constant winning. We can't flounder around 500."

"Anything can happen in two months," added Tommy Helms, who was hit by a bases-loaded pitch from Pedro Borbon to score the go-ahead run in Pittsburgh's 8-5 victory.

"This club does not panic. A lot of clubs might die, but not this one," said Helms, an ex-Red who had walked earlier to force in a run.

The Pirates cracked a 4-4 tie in the eighth inning with a three-run rally keyed by Rennie Stennett's two-run bases-loaded double. Murtaugh then pressed starter Jerry Reuss into bullpen duty to preserve the victory.

"He was my most-rested pitcher. Besides with the All-Star break coming up, why not use him?" said Murtaugh. It was the first relief appearance by Reuss since 1973 when he was with the Houston Astros.

The Pirates capitalized on control problems by Cincinnati pitchers to build a 3-1 lead and later win it. Don Gullett, making his first start for Cincinnati in three weeks, gave up four walks in the fourth inning, twice forcing in runs.

Then Borbon, after giving up three straight singles in the eight to load the bases, uncorked a pitch that hit Helms on the elbow.

"He was trying to sidearm me up and in," said Helms. "I was lucky he hit me. I have trouble with sidearmers." X-rays were scheduled today to reveal the extent of the injury.

Kent Tekulve, though he pitched to only one batter, was credited with the victory after relieving Jim Rooker. Borbon, 2-2, absorbed the loss.

Gullett allowed four runs and four hits in six innings, including a solo homer to Bill Robinson. Murtaugh said Gullett "had good stuff but he was wild."

Gullett, troubled by a sore arm most of the season, pronounced the arm as "strong now. That was my main concern. The rest will come. I have to say I'm looking forward to the second half."

The Reds, who hold a sixgame lead over Los Angeles in the National League West, are idle until Thursday when Montreal invades.

How well a pitcher does is up to the man himself. But when he does it is up to his manager, especially around All-Star time...in the National League, anyway.

The American League, having dropped 12 of the last 13 midseason classics, has been given an order by AL President Lee MacPahl the last three years — don't use any of your All-Star hurlers on the Sunday before the game.

But in the NL, anything goes — which is why Jon Matlack, surprise reliever Tom Seaver and Dick Ruthven went.

None of the hurlers picked for Tuesday night's All-Star Game got anything but a workout in Atlanta's 9-8 victory over the New York Mets. But Don Sutton, normally another starter, found himself in an unaccustomed relief role — and found a victory in the process as Los Angeles beat St. Louis 9-6.

In the rest of the NL, Ed Halicki baffled Chicago with a two-hitter as San Francisco beat the Cubs 2-0, Jim Kaat pitched a nine-hit shutout in Philadelphia's 3-0 victory over San Diego, Joaquin Andujar did the same in Houston's 1-0 squeaker over Montreal and Pittsburgh defeated Cincinnati 8-5.

Matlack, the winner of last year's All-Star Game, had an easy time with the Braves until they bombed him during a five-run seventh inning. One of his successors was Seaver.

"I volunteered to relieve," the Mets' ace right-hander said. "If they thought they could use me, I wanted to play. If I had expected to start the All-Star Game it would have been different. But I won't start. Randy Jones (of San Diego) will. He didn't pitch today purposely so he could start the All-Star Game."

Seaver did his job, facing two batters and shutting off the Braves' seventh-inning burst. "I didn't want to use him anymore so I took him out," Mets Manager Joe Frazier said. "He is a starter and that was enough." And when the Mets erupted for four runs in the eighth to take the lead, Seaver was in line to pick up the victory.

But Bob Apodaca, was unsuccessful in relief, although his primary job is as a reliever. Willie Montanez, who had driven in three runs earlier with a pair of singles, drove in three more with a game-winning double.

Ruthven pitched until Braves Manager Dave Bristol sent up a pinch-hitter for him during their five-run seventh. But his shot at victory also vanished when the Mets jumped on Mike Marshall in the eighth. Bruce Dal Canton, who cooled off New York for the final 11-3 innings, got the victory.

Sutton pitched two-hit ball for three relief innings and got his victory when the Dodgers jumped on St. Louis for seven runs in the seventh inning, three of them scoring on Reggie Smith's homer.

Sutton said the relief stint was his first in nearly five years.

Giants 2, Cubs 0

Halicki, who pitched a no-hitter against the Mets last season, had another one going against Chicago until Jose Cardenal grounded a single up the middle leading off the seventh inning. The only hit he and the Giants needed was Gary Matthews' first-inning homer.

Phillies 3, Padres 0

Greg Luzinski's three-run double in the sixth inning and a strong defense that turned three double plays gave Kaat his first NL shutout, despite his being peppered for nine San Diego hits.

Astros 1, Expos 0

Andujar's shutout was his third of the season. "I've been sick for about four or five days," he admitted afterwards. "I felt dizzy before the game. But I love baseball. Every time I go out there, I give 200 per cent. The way I was hustling, no one could tell I was sick. You have to be a man to play this game."

Cordle Wins Medal In Olympic Meet

David Cordle, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Cordle, Route 2, received a bronze medal for his third place finish in the low hurdles at the AAU Junior Olympic State Meet Saturday at Cincinnati.

He qualified to represent Ohio in the Region 6 AAU Junior Olympic Track and Field championships in Macedonia, O., Saturday.

The top four in this Regional will compete in the AAU Nationals at Memphis, Tenn., August 17.

Olympics Go On, But Spirit Is Dead

MONTREAL (AP) — The Olympic Games go on in Montreal, but the hopes of the Taiwanese and the spirit of the Olympic movement lie buried beneath a million bushels of Canadian wheat.

Canada's vast overseas trading interests are the underlying factor behind one of the worst crises in Olympic history.

Miller Wins British Open

SOUTHPORT, England (AP) — There was only one journalist from Spain known to be at the British Open to see his young countryman Severiano Ballesteros leap into the international golfing spotlight. And that sportswriter didn't write a word.

He told his boss earlier that he would be at the Open on vacation, and asked if his paper wanted a story. His boss said no.

That's the way it is in Spain, and even more so in the rest of Europe. Soccer is king, with sports such as cycling and rugby ahead of golf.

So while young Severiano caught the imagination of Americans, British, Japanese and others where the Open was televised, he probably remains a relative unknown in his own country, where it was not shown. But his exciting performance — he led for three rounds against the best in the world before falling to Johnny Miller in the final round Saturday — is a swing in the right direction for golf on the continent.

Miller won it with a final round 66 for 279 and the largest margin of victory — six strokes — in more than 40 years at this event. Ballesteros, who shared the lead after the first round and held it alone after the second and third rounds, faded to a 74 and needed an eagle and birdie on the final two holes to get that.

The International Olympic Committee bowed on Sunday to the Canadian government which, under pressure from Peking, refused to allow Taiwan's athletes into the country because they would not change their official name or their flag.

It is the first time since the Games began in 1896 that a host country has shut out athletes recognized by the IOC. Unless there is a last-minute change of heart, the Taiwanese will be missing from Saturday's opening ceremony.

Behind Canada's decision, which was sprung on the IOC only six weeks ago, is its wheat exporting deal with Communist China, its biggest overseas trading partner. Selling wheat to Peking has brought new prosperity to farmers in Western Canada.

Communist China applied last year for Olympic recognition, but with the qualification that Taiwan be kicked out of the Games. The IOC took no immediate action. Peking then made a direct approach to Canada and demanded that Taiwanese athletes be shut out during the Olympics.

The Canadians met them halfway and said the Taiwanese would be allowed in only if they dropped the name of the Republic of China — the name by which their national Olympic committee is recognized by the IOC. The Taiwanese refused.

The IOC, which prides itself on being above politics and dealing only with sports, pleaded with Canada to honor the Olympic charter and grant free entry to the Taiwanese.

But Sunday night, Lord Killanin, president of the IOC, admitted he had failed. The Canadians refused to move one inch.

In Pete Rose's second season in organized baseball he hit .331 for Tampa in the Florida State League. He went up two years later to stay with Cincinnati.

Figueroa, Yankees Blank White Sox

By JOHN NELSON
AP Sports Writer

Ed Figueroa will spend the All-Star break with his family this year, but he knows his time is coming.

After firing a three-hit shutout Sunday in New York's 5-0 victory over the Chicago White Sox, Figueroa reflected on his role with the Yankees and his own stature in baseball.

"It is my second year in the big leagues," said 27-year-old native of Puerto Rico. "I just want to win my games. Then next year I have the name. Maybe I can win 20 games with this club."

"Last year I had only seven wins before the All-Star Game. This year I have 10," said Figueroa, 10-6, the third Yankee pitcher to win 10 games before midseason. The other two are Catfish Hunter and Dock Ellis.

In other American League games, Detroit nipped Kansas City 6-5 in 12 innings, Boston defeated Minnesota 6-4, Baltimore beat California 3-1, Oakland whipped Cleveland 9-3 and Milwaukee took two from Texas, 6-3 and 5-4 in 10 innings.

Going into Tuesday's All-Star Game in Philadelphia, the Yankees led Boston by 9½ games in the AL East Penant race.

Oscar Gamble's two-run, 400-foot homer in the second inning gave the 6-foot right-handed Figueroa all the firepower he needed to give the Yanks their ninth victory in 10 games between the two teams this season.

Figueroa allowed three singles, gave up two walks and struck out four. Chicago starter Bart Johnson, 7-8, seeking his fifth straight victory, took the loss.

Tigers 6, Royals 5
Rusty Staub's two-out, 12thinning single scored John Wockenfuss and gave Detroit its victory. Wockenfuss had walked and advanced to third on successive sacrifice bunts.

John Hiller, 8-4, got the victory in relief, while Steve Mingori, 3-1, was tagged with the loss.

The Royals had tied the game in the seventh inning with three runs.

The Tigers' Aurelio Rodriguez got his sixth homer of the year, a two-run blast, in the fourth inning.

Red Sox 6, Twins 4
Fred Lynn ignited a 13-hit Boston attack with a first-inning home run, his sixth of the year, and Ferguson Jenkins evened his record at 8-8 in Boston's win.

Jenkins scattered 10 hits before giving way to Jim Willoughby in the ninth. Denny Doyle had a two-run single in the third for Boston, which evened its record at 40-40 going into the All-Star Game.

Orioles 3, Angels 1
Reggie Jackson blasted a two-run homer off Nolan Ryan and Dave Pagan, in his first start for Baltimore since being traded from the Yankees in June, earned his second victory in five decisions this season.

Ryan, 7-10, was the loser, despite striking out 12, as he walked five and allowed nine hits. It was the sixth time this season and the 77th time in his career that Ryan has fanned 10 or more batters in a game.

A's 9, Indians 3
Bill North drove in two runs, scored three more and extended his league-

Team Cards Net 51 To Win PCC Event

The team of Loyal McDonald, Hal Whitfield, Everett Seeds and Walter Hall fired a net 51 to win the ABCD scramble tournament Saturday at Pickaway Country Club.

Second place was a tie between the teams of Lee Cook, Bob Currie, John Johnson and Dick England and Ron Kazmierczak, Bud Ferguson, Chuck Reid and John Fanale. They carded a 52.

Howie Davies, Don McDill, Sid Sanders and Jay Stoneburner took fourth place with a score of 53.

Regular league play will be held Tuesday night.

Gene Woodling hit .318 in 26 World Series games over five years for the New York Yankees.

now have lost six in a row.

Aaron's 340-foot homer into the left field stands was his ninth of the season and 754th of his career.

Milwaukee tied the nightcap 4-4 in the ninth on run-scoring singles by Bernie Carbo, who had a two-run homer earlier in the game, and Robin Yount. Bill Castro, 2-0, got the victory in relief.

Jim Slaton picked up his 10th victory against six losses in the opener as Gorman Thomas's two-run double highlighted Milwaukee's five-run seventh inning.

leading stolenbases mark to 42 with a single swipe in Oakland's victory. The A's have won seven of their past eight games.

Winning pitcher Paul Mitchell, 5-5, got relief help from Paul Lindblad, who gave up just one hit and held Cleveland scoreless for the final 3 2-3 innings. The loser was Dennis Eckersley, 4-8.

Brewers 6-5, Rangers 3-4
Hank Aaron homered in the 10th inning to give Milwaukee a sweep of its doubleheader with Texas and a sweep of their five-game series. The Rangers

Television Schedule

Your Views On Horoscope Television

By FRANCIS DRAKE

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

FOR TUESDAY

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 20): Don't scatter your energies as you keep the ball rolling. Things are not as difficult as they may seem. Confer with others on matters of mutual concern.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 to May 21): Put into practice procedures which have generated the most advancement to date. Avail yourself of new opportunities — of which there are many. A good day — with your help!

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21): A tabulation of "musts" may uncover a weak schedule — one that could be pepped up to show your capacities to better advantage.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23): A favorable trend here steadies your resoluteness and self-reliance. There's no need for recklessness, but DO go forward in your unusual courageous manner.

LEO (July 24 to Aug. 23): Emotions could get out of hand unless you are determined to keep them under control. Lack of self-mastery will hinder your own ends.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23): Your individualistic touch, a special word at the right moment could mean the difference between a so-so day and a top-flight one. Many opportunities for advancement indicated.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23): Give offerings a chance to prove themselves — especially if investigated and found to be potentially lucrative. Family affairs in high favor.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 22): Budget time as well as other assets. Wasted hours can disrupt routine and steady achievement. Pay no attention to pessimists and belittlers.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 to Dec. 21): Your competition will be strong now, but there is plenty of room for your talents. Display them with discriminating taste. Benefits in the offing.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): Large-scale dealings, trusts, building and real estate interests can advance under astute management. But you will have to work hard and have unswerving faith in your goals.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): Self-reliance and optimism stimulated. Seek better understanding with associates. Promote sound ventures; come spending may be necessary to insure gains.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): Give play to your capacity for accomplishment without seeming effort. There's opportunity now for greatly increased prestige, substantial progress.

YOU BORN TODAY are an intensely idealistic and loyal individual, humanitarian in your instincts and filled with a respect, amounting almost to awe, for heritage and tradition. Though talented along many lines, you have a special affinity for science and this, coupled with your characteristic urge to serve your fellowman, would make you unusually successful in the field of medicine. Nursing and sociology are also excellent outlets for these gifts. Other careers open to you: teaching, architecture, sculpting, archeology, and writing. Whatever occupation you choose, however, you should take up some form of art as a hobby. Otherwise, your creative aspirations

WASHINGTON (AP) — Almost everybody connected with broadcasting seems to complain about the fairness doctrine, but few members of Congress seem interested in changing anything.

The fairness doctrine requires broadcasters to present contrasting views on controversial issues of public importance. The equal time doctrine, which applies mainly to politics, requires that equal use of broadcast facilities be given opposing candidates.

Most members of the Federal Communications Commission support the doctrine, but they too want some changes.

Chairman Richard E. Wiley and Commissioner James Quello said it was "absurd" but the law reads the FCC had no choice but to rule that any TV station that broadcasts old Ronald Reagan movies would be obligated to offer equal time to President Ford, who doesn't want it.

Commissioner Glen O. Robinson, no supporter of the fairness doctrine, complained similarly last month in voting with the majority to invoke for the first time what has been called the "forgotten half" of the doctrine.

It overrode the news judgment of radio station WHAR in Clarksburg, W.Va., and told the station it must present both sides of the strip mining controversy as an issue of local importance.

The decision prompted the board of directors of the National Association of Broadcasters to pass a resolution calling it "an unwarranted intrusion" into the right of free speech.

The NAB board also complained about another FCC decision that eight California radio stations were not giving enough time to opponents of nuclear power plants. If this stands, the NAB said, it means "broadcasters will no longer be able to make judgments about what constitutes controversial issues."

This is the busy season for William B. Ray, chief of the FCC's complaints and compliance division, and his political expert, Milton O. Gross, handling complaints and questions about political broadcasts.

Gross said he handled about 600 questions, mostly phone calls, in April and about 600 in May but, with the primaries mostly over, about 500 in June. Most involve equal time and the lowest going rate which broadcast stations must charge for political broadcasts.

Gross and Ray handle most questions, but the commission itself rules on the major problems, especially if a major candidate is involved.

FCC Commissioner Benjamin Hooks complained recently that the TV networks are reluctant to sell prime air time to presidential candidates.

He said network officials cry over and over for release from equal time, the fairness doctrine and reasonable access provisions and say "if you release us from everything then we will do everything."

Francis Marion, a colonial general during the American Revolution was called the "Swamp Fox" because of his successful raids against the British in South Carolina.
